

Hong Kong Studies
Volume 1, Numbers 1 & 2 (2018)

Volume 1, Number 1 (Spring 2018)

Hong Kong Studies: A Beginning Tammy Ho, Michael O'Sullivan, Eddie Tay and Michael Tsang	1
Rethinking Contentious Politics in Hong Kong: Change and Continuity Samson Yuen and Edmund W. Cheng	7
One Country, Two Systems: An Example of Divisible Sovereignty? Nicholas Gordon	26
翻譯的文化身份 ——論九七後香港詩刊中的文化翻譯 宋子江	41
Reframing Celebrities in Post-Handover Hong Kong: Political Advocacy, Social Media, and the Performance of Denise Ho Dorothy Lau	51
“Happy Birthday to You”: Music as Nonviolent Weapon in the Umbrella Movement Winnie W. C. Lai	66
In Name Only: Democratic Paralysis and Potential in Post-Umbrella Movement Hong Kong Agnes Tam	83
Killing Time: The Handover and Its Afterlives Carlos Rojas	100
Contributors	116